A GUILT-FREE LIFE

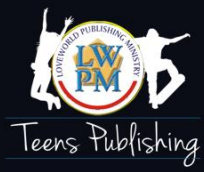

One of the devil's greatest weapons against young people is guilt. After making mistakes or falling into sin, many begin to feel they've gone too far for God to forgive them. Guilt whispers, "You're dirty. You've messed up too much. God won't accept you now." So they stay away—trapped in silence, shame, and fear.

Yet the message of the Gospel is clear: God is not angry with you. He's not holding your sins against you. He loves you unconditionally, and through Jesus Christ, He made a way for you to be free.

Jesus took your place—He died for your sins, was buried, and rose again to give you a new life. The Bible says, "But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ" (Ephesians 2:13 NIV). His blood erased your past and gave you full access to God's presence.

This life of freedom and peace is not earned by good behavior—it is received by faith in Jesus Christ. Without Him, guilt remains. But in Him, you are forgiven and made new.

If you've never asked Jesus into your life, pray this (for real, not just reading it):
