TAKE5
ALL FOR YOUR GOOD
Edition 01

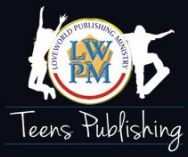

FALLING in LOVE as a teenager?

As a teenager, you're actually capable of "falling in love." However, at this stage of your life, there are certain things you're not allowed to do, not because you can't do them, but because you're not prepared to handle the responsibility that comes with them. "Falling in love" is one of such things. Your teenage years are your time of preparation for a glorious future, and even though you're capable of being in love with someone, you're not expected to. Let's review certain reasons why you shouldn't fall in love at this stage.

You Need Maturity And Emotional Stability

Being in love with someone requires spiritual as well as mental and emotional maturity and

END OF THE FREE SAMPLE

Enjoyed it? Read the full book.

Take 5: All For Your Good, Edition 1

Get the full book

teens.loveworldpublishing.org

A product of LoveWorld Teens Publishing