UNFILTERED

YOUR LIFE SCRIPTED BY GOD'S DESIGN

Unfiltered is for the young and the hungry—the ones who refuse to settle for surface-level answers when life demands something deeper.

It's for those young people craving divine truth for the issues that keep their generation up at night.

It's for the dreamer tired of being told to wait their turn. It's for anyone who's ever felt like God must have more to say than what the world has handed down to them.

So here's what we're about: straight talk from God to your generation. No fluff. No filler. No agenda but the truth—uncomfortable when it needs to be, yet always, always filled with faith.

We're not here to tell you what to think. We're here to hand you something rare: a space where you can encounter God and His truth without the performance, without the pressure, and without the filter.

This isn't your grandparents' Christian magazine. This is for you. Right now. At this moment.

Welcome to Unfiltered. Come as you are—the truth is waiting.

MORE THAN NICE SOUNDS:

How the Music you love shapes Your Spirit, Soul & Identity

You press play without a second thought—letting the bass thump, the melody carry your emotions, and the lyrics loop in your head long after the song ends. It feels like just entertainment, just background noise for your study sessions or commutes. But here is the unsettling truth: what you listen to doesn't just disappear into thin air; it sinks into your subconscious, paints your imagination, and quietly molds the way you think, feel, and even respond to life. Music is far more than vibration and rhythm—it is a spiritual language that bypasses your defenses and feeds directly into the soil of your heart. The world says, "It's just music, relax," but the Word of God urges you to stand guard, because every track is carrying a seed—either one that produces life or one that slowly chokes your spirit. So, if you are truly serious about protecting your identity and walking in God's purpose, you cannot afford to judge a song by its beat alone; you must evaluate the source behind it. And that brings us to the first non-negotiable filter that separates soul-nourishing sound from soul-destroying noise:

Before you simply scroll past this warning or dismiss it as over thinking, pause and honestly ask yourself: Is the soundtrack of your life drawing you closer to te lord or pulling you further away? Because here is the undeniable truth that changes everything: it matters what kind of music you listen to and enjoy.

In Proverbs 4:23 AMPC, the Bible says to "Keep and guard your heart with all vigilance and above all that you guard, for out of it flow the springs of life." This means that you just can't let anything enter your heart. Music is said to be the food for the soul, and if the soul is the doorway to the spirit, then the music you listen to has direct access into and a great impact on your heart. There're three crucial things that should guide your choice of music:

- The message of the music.
- The messenger of that music.
- What the message and the messenger represent.

What do these mean? For every music choice you have to make, always ask yourself:" Does the message of the music produce in me worldly/carnal inclinations or godly inspirations?" The answer will tell you whether or not it's something you should be listening to. And you know we can't reject something until we know exactly what's behind it. If we know the messenger (the singer) behind a particular musical and we know that he or she is not from God, that is, he or she is not born again, then of course we can reject it all together.
