UNFILTERED

YOUR LIFE SCRIPTED BY GOD'S DESIGN

Unfiltered is for the young and the hungry—the ones who refuse to settle for surface-level answers when life demands something deeper.

It's for those young people craving divine truth for the issues that keep their generation up at night.

It's for the dreamer tired of being told to wait their turn. It's for anyone who's ever felt like God must have more to say than what the world has handed down to them.

So here's what we're about: straight talk from God to your generation. No fluff. No filler. No agenda but the truth—uncomfortable when it needs to be, yet always, always filled with faith.

We're not here to tell you what to think. We're here to hand you something rare: a space where you can encounter God and His truth without the performance, without the pressure, and without the filter.

This isn't your grandparents' Christian magazine. This is for you. Right now. At this moment.

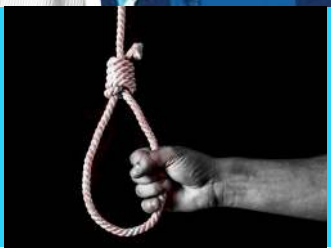

Welcome to Unfiltered. Come as you are—the truth is waiting.

Suicide Is Not the EXIT

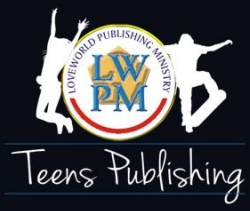

Rethinking the Way Out of Your Darkest Moment

If you're thinking of suicidal thoughts, it's likely because you're carrying a heavy burden. Feelings of frustration, rejection, depression, anger, shame, or hopelessness may be pressing in on you, making you look for an escape. You may feel like there's no other way to stop the pain than to "end it all." If that's where you are right now, please take a moment to read this.

"Suicide is not a way out of your troubles or darkest moments , and that for many reasons. Firstly, suicide is a sin. The main reason for suicide is selfishness (self-centeredness, self-love). Someone becomes frustrated with society, or is upset about something, or feels hopeless, dejected and defeated, and decides, "Well, I'll just take my life!"

The first thing you've got to recognize is that no one takes his or her own life joyfully. No one does it in praise to God or out of their love for the Lord. The reasons for taking one's own life are all negative. Often, before anybody does such a thing, certain "negative" things are likely to have happened. For example, maybe some feeling of rejection, or frustration, depression, anger, resentment, shame, or even as a form of retaliation against those who may have abused or mistreated one. None of these reasons is positive. Fear, depression, frustration, anger, shame, hatred, vengefulness, etc. are all negative emotions and responses. So if a person decides to take their own life, it's because they've responded negatively to something, and that negative response is what propels
